

C: We confess that we are sinners from birth and that we have sinned against You with unclean thoughts, words, and actions. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For Jesus' sake, forgive us and wash us clean from our offenses.

P: Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

"THE LUTHERAN HOUR" – Sunday, June 14

8:30AM on KCUE-AM; 6:00PM on KDHL-Faribault (920)

"Walking by Faith"

Speaker: Rev. Dr. Ken Klaus

The problem with living by faith is that all too often the focus of our faith proves unreliable. The risen Savior has proven Himself worthy of our trust. (2 Corinthians 5:7)

Life Quote – June 7 – The Holy Trinity

"At the heart of marriage, there is a message about who we are as human beings in relationship to God. Paul writes to the church in Ephesus, 'This mystery [called marriage] is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church' (Ephesians 5:32). The Lord is saying to us that marriage is a witness on earth of the victory by Christ that makes us one with Him. As Christ makes us one with Himself through the cross, so marriage makes us one as husband and wife through our faithfulness to each other." Rev. Dr. Richard C. Eyer, director emeritus of the Concordia Bioethics Institute. A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life.
