The Holy Trinity

June 1, 2012

VISITORS – WE WELCOME YOU to this house of prayer this morning. May you feel at home among friends as we worship together. We invite you to sign your name in the guest book in the back of the church and hope you will return again soon.

This morning we celebrate the Sacrament of the Altar, a feast of forgiveness in which we partake of the true body and blood of Christ along with the visible elements of bread and wine. The Bible gives specific instructions about the Lord's Supper. As it can be received to one's spiritual blessing or to one's spiritual harm (1 Corinthians 11:27-29), the Lord's Table must be approached with sincere faith and a Biblical understanding. That's why all who are new to the Lutheran faith are instructed about this sacred meal before attending the Lord's Supper. Moreover, this Sacrament is also a testimony of our oneness in what we believe (1 Corinthians 10:17). Therefore, we welcome to the Holy Supper all confirmed members of Immanuel and those confirmed members of sister congregations with whom we are in fellowship through unity in teaching (LCMS and TAALC). All guests who wish to receive the Sacrament are asked to speak with Pastor Sorenson before the service. The faith that we believe and confess is a beautiful gift of God. If you are new to Immanuel, we warmly welcome and encourage you to learn about this faith.

on the bulletin board. Thanks!

“THE LUTHERAN HOUR” – Sunday, June 10

8:30AM on KCUE-AM; 6:00PM on KDHL-Faribault (920)

“We Do Not Lose Heart”

Lutheran Hour Speaker: Rev. Gregory Seltz

The secret to not losing heart is knowing that God raised Jesus from the dead and He will also raise you. Because God is at work in the world, the troubles of today will not have the last word in your life.
(2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1)

Catechism Review

What does God mean when He threatens to punish the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate Him?

If the children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren also hate God and follow in the evil ways of their parents, then God will during their earthly lives punish them for the sins of their ancestors.

Why does God threaten such punishment?

God threatens such punishment to make us fear His anger, so that we do not act against His commandments.

How does God bless those who love Him and keep His commandments?

He showers those who believe in Him and their God-fearing descendants with His constant love and good gifts.

Surveys Due

All surveys pertaining to the Sunday morning schedule are due today. Please fill out your copy and place it in the box in the entry way. Thanks for your participation.

Life Quotes

June 3 “The life issues present us with opportunities to point people in the right way, the way of Jesus and the truth of His Word. The life issues present us with opportunities to bring Jesus and His compassion to people who are hurting and struggling. The life issues present us with opportunities to bring people to Jesus and the healing and restoring message of His salvation.” *Rev. Dr. James
I. Lamb, executive director of Lutherans For Life* – A “Life Quote”

Lutheran Youth Valley Fair Day

Attention Youth: June 25th is a special day at Valley Fair.

Lutheran youth groups are eligible to get a significant reduction on the daily pass. The cost per youth is $24 for the day, compared with the usual fee of $42.99 per ticket. A sign-up sheet has been posted for those who would like to attend. Pastor will leave from church at 8:30 AM on the 25th. Additional money will be needed for food or other items you want to purchase inside the park. Additional adult chaperones are welcome to sign up and get in on the reduced rate.
Hope you can make it!
