LIFE QUOTE

August 10 "In Scripture, fathers are told to emulate the Savior; they are told to give as Jesus gave. That means giving when it's not wanted, giving when it's not appreciated, giving when it is not applauded. It means putting the welfare of others above that of yourself. It means giving until it hurts, giving even to the point where you are ready to sacrifice yourself. We are to give because that is what Jesus has done for us. From start to finish, from beginning to end, Jesus' life was dedicated to us. And we fathers with our families can honor our Lord and impact the future by doing as He did." Rev. Ken Klaus, speaker emeritus of "The Lutheran Hour" – A "Life Quote" from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

CATECHISM REVIEW

The Sacrament of the Altar

What does Christ command when He says, "This do in remembrance of Me"?

Christ commands in these words that His Sacrament be celebrated in the Church till the end of time as a living proclamation and distribution of His saving death and all its blessings.
