CATECHISM REVIEW

The Lord's Prayer

The Seventh Petition

But deliver us from evil.

What does this mean?

We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, gives us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.

CHURCH HISTORY

The cemetery records of 1867 list six or seven burials. Five were infants or toddlers. Andreas Lehrbach, age 55, died and was buried in St. John's Cemetery in Red Wing.

The next year, three of the five burials were toddlers, but also Claus Mehrkens, age 34, and Anna (Mrs. Friedrich) Dicke, age 40. Their son, A.H. Dicke, was about seventeen at the time.

The following year, 1869, there were five burials listed. The first one reads: "Dorling, born August in Mecklenberg, died 11:45 p.m. in March, buried 3-18-1868 on the church cemetery in Wells Creek." Ludi Berg Wiebusch, age 57, was buried in Wells Creek in 1869. Three children died, including A. Holst, the four year old daughter of Claus Holst and Maria Vietz; Nicolaus Diercks, the six month old son of Jacob Diercks and Meta Quast, and Anna Stemmann, age 2 1/2, buried on Thompson's Burial Place. Stay tuned for more information on "Thompson's Burial Place."
