CATECHISM REVIEW

The Second Article: Redemption

For what threefold office was Christ anointed?

Christ was anointed to be our Prophet, Priest, and King.

- A. As Prophet, Christ (1) preached personally during His life on earth, validating His Word with miracles, especially His own resurrection; (2) through the preached Gospel today still proclaims Himself to be the Son of God and Redeemer of the world.
- B. As Priest, Christ (1) fulfilled the Law perfectly in our stead (active obedience); (2) sacrificed Himself for our sins (passive obedience); (3) still pleads for us with His Heavenly Father (intercession).
- C. As King, Christ (1) rules with His almighty power over all creation (the kingdom of power - all creatures); (2) governs and protects especially His church (the kingdom of grace - the church on earth); (3) finally leads His church to glory in heaven (the kingdom of glory - the church in heaven).

(Please see the church bulletin for additional announcements this week.)

"More Than a Wish"

Speaker Emeritus of The Lutheran Hour: Rev. Dr. Ken Klaus

Not so long ago over 370 million tickets were sold for a Powerball drawing. Each person who made a purchase had hope that they might become rich. Most were disappointed. In 1

Thessalonians 4, St. Paul explains how the resurrection hope of Christians is better than the hopelessness of the world and far more solid than groundless wishful thinking.
