July 3, 2016

VISITORS – WE WELCOME YOU to this house of prayer this morning. May you feel at home among friends as we worship together. We invite you to sign your name in the guest book in the back of the church and hope you will return again soon.

This morning we celebrate the Sacrament of the Altar, a feast of forgiveness in which we partake of the true body and blood of Christ along with the visible elements of bread and wine. The Bible gives specific instructions about the Lord's Supper. As it can be received to one's blessing or to one's harm (1 Corinthians 11:27-29), the Lord's Table must be approached with a sincere faith and a Biblical understanding. That's why all who are new to the Lutheran faith are instructed about this sacred meal before attending the Lord's Supper. Moreover, this Sacrament is also a testimony of our oneness in what we believe (1 Corinthians 10:17). Therefore, we welcome to the Holy Supper all members of Immanuel who have been confirmed and those confirmed members of sister congregations with whom we are in fellowship through unity in teaching (LCMS and TAALC). All guests who wish to receive the Sacrament are asked to speak with Pastor Sorenson before the service. The faith that we believe and confess is a beautiful gift of God. If you are new to Immanuel, we warmly welcome and encourage you to learn about this faith.

Closing National Prayer
 (Adapted from "The Lutheran Book of Prayer" and Doberstein's
 "A Lutheran Prayer Book")

Gracious Lord, heavenly Father, at this time the minds of many are turned in thanksgiving for the blessings bestowed upon our country. We are mindful of those who have laid down their lives to defend our nation. We indeed owe a debt of gratitude to those who gave their all on our behalf. Grant that our country may continue to enjoy peace and liberty and freedom. May we honor those who have given their lives for us by bringing the tribute of a ready heart, an obedient life, and a worthy citizenship. Guide the counsels of government. Strengthen the bonds of true loyalty.

Above all, grant that the people of Your Church, Your children by faith in Christ, find a field of service in which we may uphold righteousness, order, and peace.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, You love the people of all nations on earth. May Your Spirit rule in the hearts of the nations. Bring men and women and children from all countries to see clearly, to repent truly, and to know Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. Join us all in obedience to Your will and devotion to Your Son, who came to bring peace to our hearts; we ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Closing Hymn: #965, "God Bless Our Native Land"
