Catechism Review
Who is the Holy Spirit?

The Holy Spirit is the third person in the Holy Trinity, true God with the Father and the Son—therefore not merely the power or energy of God.

How do you know that the Holy Spirit is God?

Because the Scriptures clearly call Him God, teaching that A) the Holy Spirit has divine names; B) the Holy Spirit possesses divine attributes (properties or characteristics); C) The Holy Spirit does divine works (which only God can do); D) the Holy Spirit receives divine honor and glory.
