LIFE QUOTES – APRIL 12

"Easter says you can put truth in a grave, but it won't stay there." Clarence W. Hall, pastor – A "Life Quote" from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

AN UPDATE ON PASTOR KEVIN ROBSON

Reverend Kevin Robson served as vacancy pastor for our congregation in 2004. Since leaving us, he has been the pastor of Prince of Peace in Baxter, Minnesota. He has now accepted the call to serve as the Chief Mission Officer (CMO) of The Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod. Pastor Robson's extensive business background, including a Master's Degree in Business Administration (MBA), make him an ideal choice for this position. If you would like to read more, Pastor Sorenson has posted an article on the church bulletin board regarding Pastor Robson and his new position. The article is from the April edition of the synodical "Reporter." We pray for many blessings to Pastor Robson and his wife, Peg, as they make this transition. Pastor Robson will work at the Synod's International Center in St. Louis, Missouri.

REVIEW: THE DOCTRINAL POSITION OF THE LUTHERAN CHURCH - MISSOURI SYNOD Of The Symbols of The Lutheran Church (From "The Brief Statement")

We accept as our confession all the symbols contained in the Book of Concord of the year 1580. — The symbols of the Lutheran Church are not a rule of faith beyond, and supplementary to, Scripture, but a confession of the doctrines of Scripture over against those who deny these doctrines.

Since the Christian Church cannot make doctrines, but can and should simply profess the doctrine revealed in Holy Scripture, the doctrinal decisions of the symbols are binding upon the conscience not because they are the outcome of doctrinal controversies, but only because they are the doctrinal decisions of Holy Scripture itself.
