FELLOWSHIP TIME TREATS

A sign-up sheet has been posted for those who would like to bring treats for our Sunday morning fellowship time at 9:45 AM. If you have any questions, please give Sara Sorenson a call (388-4577).

FALL HARVEST FESTIVAL – SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11

Following worship next Sunday, we will have a special fall harvest event featuring good food (including some gluten-free options), a silent auction, and fellowship. A list of items for the auction is currently in the narthex if you would like to see some of the items that will be featured. You are also welcome to add your own items to the list that you would like to donate for the silent auction.

Proceeds will be used to help defray the cost of the basement project. This day will also be an opportunity to celebrate the new ministry spaces that God has granted to us – new Sunday School classrooms, new bathroom, and fellowship spaces in the basement. Come and celebrate with the Hay Creek family on November 11th! Bring family and friends!

CHURCH HISTORY

Have you seen the beautiful baptismal certificates in the social hall? Have you wondered who they are from? One is the baptismal certificate of Mildred Reitman who died in 2008. It is signed by Pastor J. C. Meyer at her baptism in 1911. She was the daughter of Heinrich Christian (Henry Christ) Reitman and Maria (Mary) Holst Reitman. Mildred had one sibling, Baby Girl Reitman who was born and died in 1910 and is buried at Immanuel. Mildred had no immediate survivors at the time of her death. She attended school in Hay Creek and worked at LaGrange Shoe Factory in Red Wing for twenty years.

Note from Pastor Sorenson: Mildred was the oldest member at Hay Creek when I began my ministry here. She also had worked at Red Wing Laundry and St. John's Hospital. Because Mildred was so hard of hearing, I had to sit practically knee to knee with her when I would visit her. She loved collecting figurines and stuffed toys. She also didn't like to eat turkey! Her funeral was held in conjunction with the Sunday morning service for All Saints in 2008. This is a good day to remember her, ten years after her passing.

CATECHISM REVIEW

The Lord's Prayer

Whose prayers are acceptable to God?

Only those who believe in Jesus Christ may pray to God and expect to be heard.

What should be the content of our prayers?

In our prayers we should ask for everything that tends to the glory of God and to our own and our neighbor's welfare, both spiritual and bodily blessings. We should also praise and thank God for who He is and what He has done.
