For Veterans' Day (From My Prayer Book, CPH, 1957)

Lord Jesus, the Captain of my soul, who didst know the pain of battle with the old evil Foe in order to secure my redemption, grant me a grateful heart for the freedoms I enjoy through Thy grace and mercy. Help me to treasure my spiritual freedom from sin, death, and the devil, and open Thou my lips continually to praise Thee for my liberty in Thee. Teach me to be thankful for my liberties in this blessed land, which were won and preserved for me by the sacrifices of my countrymen in times past. Help me to honor their memory by a conscientious and loyal citizenship and a readiness to defend the rights of free men everywhere. Grant Thy comfort to families who this day remember with sorrow the death of those who gave their lives for our country. Sustain those veterans who are confined to hospitals throughout our land, who bear the scars of war, so that I might enjoy the wholesomeness of peace and freedom. Preserve me from forgetfulness of the heroes of the past, lest I become a coward in the face of the future. Grant the gift of peace to our land and to the world, so that Thy Gospel may have free course and more men everywhere may march under Thy Lordship beneath the banner of Thy cross. Amen.

Benediction
