HAPPY BIRTHDAYS THIS WEEK

Today - Tanner Smith
Tuesday - Bobbi Langhans
Friday - Curtis Augustin

IN OUR PRAYERS

Jeanette Falkner, Melissa Barbey, Pat Banitt (struggling with Disembarkment Syndrome), Bob Langhans, Walter Banitt, and Paul Cordes (in thanksgiving for healing).

FLOWERS TODAY

The flowers in church today are from the Reding and Kolberg families in memory of Tom Kolberg who would have been 90 on November 9th. Tom's twin brother, Jim, is still living in California.

FALL HARVEST FESTIVAL - TODAY

Following the worship service today, we will have a special fall harvest event featuring good food (including some gluten-free options), a silent auction, and fellowship. Everyone is welcome to stay and have a good time. Proceeds will be used to help defray the cost of the basement project. This is also an opportunity to celebrate the new ministry spaces that God has granted to us here at Immanuel, Hay Creek!

YOUTH EVENT: ROLLER SKATING

Pastor will take interested youth on a roller skating adventure next Saturday, November 17th. We will leave from church to go to Saints North at 11:45 AM. The cost for four hours of skating is $6. If you do not have your own skates, you may rent either quad skates ($2) or inline skates ($3). If you would like to purchase snacks from the concession stand, please bring extra money.

FELLOWSHIP TIME TREATS

A sign-up sheet has been posted for those who would like to bring treats for our Sunday morning fellowship time at 9:45 AM. If you have any questions, please give Sara Sorenson a call (388-4577).

PAUL CORDES UPDATE

We rejoice that Paul Cordes has returned home and is completing a successful recovery from West Nile Virus! We thank God for the healing that Paul has received and pray that God would safeguard his health. If anyone would like to send him cards, here is his address:

409 Oak Lane
Euless, Texas 76039-2307

CATECHISM REVIEW

How should we pray?

We should pray:

- A) in the name of Jesus, that is, with faith in Him as our Redeemer;
- B) with confidence, that is, with firm trust that for Jesus' sake our prayers will be answered;
- C) according to God's revealed will (in the Bible).

Who helps us pray?

God the Holy Spirit prays with and for us. See Romans 8:26.

"THE LUTHERAN HOUR" – Sunday, November 18, 2018

6:05AM on WCCO-AM (830), Minneapolis

6:00PM on KDHL-AM (920), Faribault

"Once And For All"

Guest Speaker: Rev. Dr. Anthony (Tony) Cook

Rev. Dr. Tony Cook shares God's message of forgiveness--"In Jesus, our Great High Priest, we have found the perfect and permanent solution to our separation and sin."

(Hebrews 10:11-19)

CHURCH HISTORY

The larger baptismal certificate in the fellowship hall was prepared for Heinrich Christian Reitmann, AKA Henry Christ Reitman. (He is the father of Mildred Reitman, who was discussed in last week's bulletin). Heinrich was the oldest son of Johann (John) Reitmann (1855-1934) and Adelheid Prigge Reitmann (1855-1930). Adelheid Ellen (Ella) Prigge immigrated from Wiegelsen, Stade, Lower Saxony, Germany to the United States in 1875. She was the daughter of Hinrich Prigge and Anna Engel Meier Prigge. Johann was born in Hannover, Lower Saxony, Germany and, according to census information, arrived in the U.S. in 1860 or 1865. [It's likely he gave those dates to the census taker—but after all, he was young when he came over and he spoke German.] According to the 1880 census, the Rietmann family lived in Goodhue. John and Adaline were 25 at the time; Henry was three; Katie was two; Anna was one month old. By 1890 the family was living in Pierce County, Wisconsin. By the 1910 census, John, his wife Ellen (same wife as above), and children Freddie, George, Emma, Lena and Clara were in McLean County, North Dakota. In addition to Henry, Katie, Anna (died at age 11 and is buried in Goodhue), Freddie, George (died in North Dakota, age 19, farm accident), Emma, Lena and Clara, there were also siblings: John, Mae, William, Bertha, and Louis (died in infancy, buried at Immanuel). Most of them lived a long life.

The baptismal certificate is signed by Catharina Thomforde. Catharina Reitmann Thomforde was the mother of John Reitmann, Anna, Henry (married Emma Wichern) and Louis (married Bertha German) Thomforde. Catherine, Louis and Anna are buried at Immanuel. J. Horst was the pastor who signed the certificate. The other signature is that of Christian Voth. Christian was married to Adelheid Prigge's sister, Catherina Metta Prigge. (Peter Voth of Goodhue married another sister, Anna Engel Prigge.)

Henry Christ Reitman was born in Wells Creek. He married Mary Holst. They were parents of Mildred and Baby Girl Reitmann. It does not appear that they lived in North Dakota (although the census was taken every ten years and he could have been up and back in between). In 1920 he was living in Goodhue County with his wife and daughter. His father-in-law, John Holst, mother-in-law, Kate Holst, brother-in-law, William Holst, and sister-in-law, Sahra Holst, were also living with them. At age 41 Heinrich signed a draft card for WWI.
